USPA NEWS - Prime Minister of Pakistan! How could you accept a 20-point peace plan that does not even mention the establishment of a Palestinian state?

London, October 2, 2025

The current Prime Minister of Pakistan, Mian Shehbaz Sharif, in an effort to please the United States and American President Donald Trump, celebrated with great fanfare and paid glowing tributes to President Donald Trump even before the formal announcement of the 20-point agenda proposed for peace in Gaza.

However, when other Islamic countries raised objections to this 20-point peace plan, he shamelessly began making noise to fool the Pakistani public, claiming that this was not the peace plan they had been shown for resolving the longstanding Israel-Palestine conflict.

My question here is: Mr. Prime Minister, explain to the nation why you committed the act of singing praises for American President Donald Trump regarding the 20-point peace plan even before its official announcement ..?

My question here is: Mr. Prime Minister, explain to the nation why you committed the act of singing praises for American President Donald Trump regarding the 20-point peace plan even before its official announcement ..?

My further question is: How could you accept a 20-point peace plan that does not even mention the establishment of a free Palestinian state?

How could you support an agreement about the future of Gaza that does not include the participation of any representative of the actual party to the conflict, namely the Palestinians?

The nation demands answers to these questions.
